Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

The preliminary amendment filed on January 30, 2006, has been received and entered.

Claims 1-10 are pending in this application and were examined on their merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 8 provides for the use of "probiotic bacteria strains", but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd. App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Alander et al. (in IDS, Letters in Applied Microbiology, 1997, Vol. 24, p.361-364).

Claims 1-10 are drawn to a process for collecting bacteria adhered to the intestinal wall of a subject, by colonoscopy through brushes, collection is carried out in several intestine segments of individual, walls of the distal ileum, right, transverse colon and left colon, culturing and analyzing the collected strains, isolating bacterial strains, and a composition comprising probiotic bacteria strains.

Alander et al. discloses a process for collecting bacteria adhered to the intestinal wall of a subject, by colonoscopy through brushes, collection is carried out in several intestine segments of individual, walls of the distal ileum, right, transverse colon and left colon, culturing and analyzing the collected strains, and isolating bacterial strains, and a composition comprising probiotic bacteria strains (see Abstract, Introduction and p.362, column 1 and column 2, "Colonoscopy & biopsies" and "Sampling & cultivation").

Alander et al. therefore clearly anticipated the claimed invention.

Conclusion

No claims are allowed.
